

To obtain a tax identification number (TIN/AFM in Greece) and a Key Code as a foreigner from a third country, you can use the online service provided by the Independent Authority for Public Revenue.

Follow the steps below:

1. Visit the online service of the Independent Authority for Public Revenue.

The screenshot shows the myAADElive website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the AAAE logo and various menu items. The main heading is "Provision of a Natural Person's VAT No. and Password/myAADElive". Below this, there is a "Register (Beta version)" button. The text explains that users can make an appointment for a videocall with an AADE employee to obtain a Natural Person VAT No. and Password. A list of required information for the appointment is provided: surname, name, father's name, email, mobile phone number, identity card or passport number, and the online filing code. A note states that new appointments are available every morning after 10:00 am. At the bottom, there is a "Log in to the application" button, which is highlighted with a red arrow and a box labeled "Press here".

The screenshot shows the "Obtaining TIN and Authentication Key" application page. The heading is "Welcome to the TIN and Authentication Key application". Below this, there are three bullet points: "Select Act for myself if you are a Natural Person and want to obtain a TIN and Authentication Key.", "Select Act as a representative in case you represent a third party with whom you have a legal representation relationship based either directly on a provision of the law or a court decision (exercising Parental Care, Judicial Supporter, Guardian etc.) or on a power of attorney (with an authorization or a notarized power of attorney).", and "In the online application that you will fill out in the next step, the requested information should refer to the person you are representing, while your details as a representative are filled in the 'Representative Information' section. The required supporting documents should be attached to the application." Below the text, there is a note: "In the case of simple authorization, there is a specific text for the document that you will attach (find the text here)." At the bottom, there are three buttons: "Act for myself", "Act as legal representative", and "Act as authorized representative". The "Act for myself" button is highlighted with a red arrow and a box labeled "Press here to apply".
